CALL for ENTRY – “Ukrainian Mythology, Folklore and Legend”

Call Description

The Ukrainian American Archives & Museum (UAAM) is planning an exhibit exploring “Ukrainian Mythology, Folklore and Legends”. This will feature original artwork which will open on March 26, 2023 and displayed through August 31, 2023. Mediums to consider are batiks, paintings, ceramics, photographs, sculptures, and installations.

The first such exhibit was sponsored by ADUK (the Association for the Advancement of Ukrainian Culture) and was titled “Ukrainian Mythology, Folklore & Legend” it was exhibited at the Detroit Scarab Club in October 1995.

Museum History

Since 1958, the UAAM continues to provide a rich archive of Ukrainian history, art, and culture in the city of Hamtramck, Michigan, situated near Detroit. Our new location provides a larger space for our work in preserving existing archives, acquiring new collections, and becoming a premiere cultural institution providing space for artists to display their work, a place for performers, writers, and historians to entertain and educate.
